IMPACT WEAPON STATEMENT – CALIFORNIA DESTINATIONS

In California, possession of an impact weapon by anyone other than a peace officer or a certified security guard is considered a felony under Penal Code section 12020(a)(1). This includes side handle (PR-24) and expandable batons.

I certify that I am either a California peace officer or security guard licensed by the CA Department of Consumer Affairs, and am authorized to purchase and possess an impact weapon in accordance with State law.
